

Entrusted Every Day to Power Justice Payments That Communities Rely On

Justice agencies operate in moments that matter most – when liberty, safety, and public trust are on the line. From after-hours bond to probation payments, reliability isn't optional. AllPaid delivers guaranteed, accountable justice payments with real human support – so agencies can operate with confidence under pressure.

The Stakes Are Higher Here

In justice, payment failures have real consequences. Systems must work 24/7, reconcile cleanly, and protect public trust.

24/7 expectations with no margin for downtime

High audit scrutiny and compliance requirements

Limited IT resources and staffing constraints

Legacy systems and manual reconciliation

What Justice Agencies Need to Succeed

Always-On Reliability

Payments available 24/7 with guaranteed processing during nights, weekends, holidays, and urgent justice moments.

End-to-End Accountability

Every dollar delivered, verified, and traceable – with zero chargeback exposure to the agency.

Audit-Ready Transparency

Court-ready reconciliation and clear reporting across funds, departments, and jurisdictions.

Compliance, Covered

PCI Level 1, SOC 2, and CJIS-aligned controls protect sensitive justice payments without compromise.

Real Human Support

24/7 live experts who understand justice workflows – available when it matters, not through ticket queues.
